

MEDIEVAL TOWN walking tour

Step into history and explore the timeless charm of Rhodes' Old Town — a UNESCO World Heritage treasure where every stone tells a story. This unforgettable walking tour takes you through centuries of culture, chivalry, and beauty as you wander the medieval streets of one of Europe's most captivating destinations.

TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Ancient Stadium (Panoramic Photo Stop)

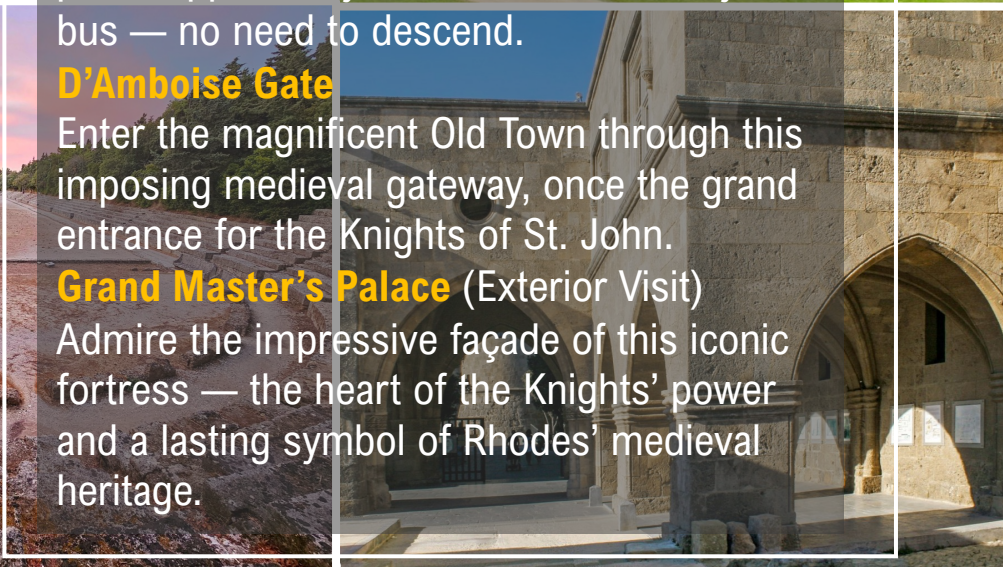

Begin your journey with a stunning view of the Ancient Stadium — a site that echoes the glory of classical Rhodes. Enjoy a perfect photo opportunity from the comfort of your bus — no need to descend.

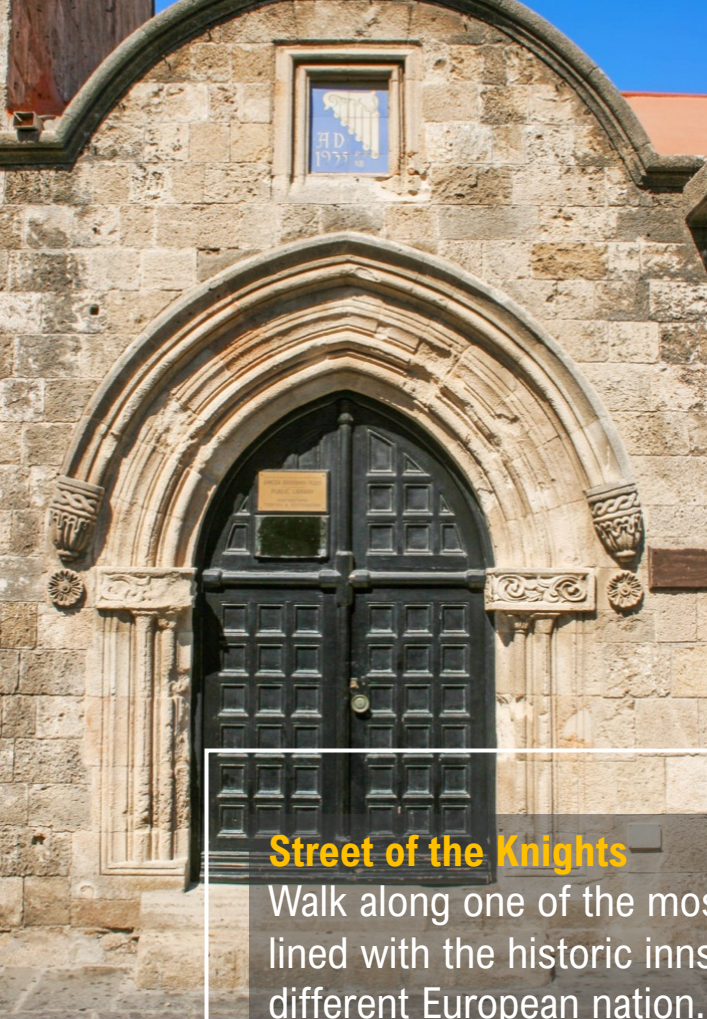

D'Amboise Gate

Enter the magnificent Old Town through this imposing medieval gateway, once the grand entrance for the Knights of St. John.

Grand Master's Palace (Exterior Visit)

Admire the impressive façade of this iconic fortress — the heart of the Knights' power and a lasting symbol of Rhodes' medieval heritage.

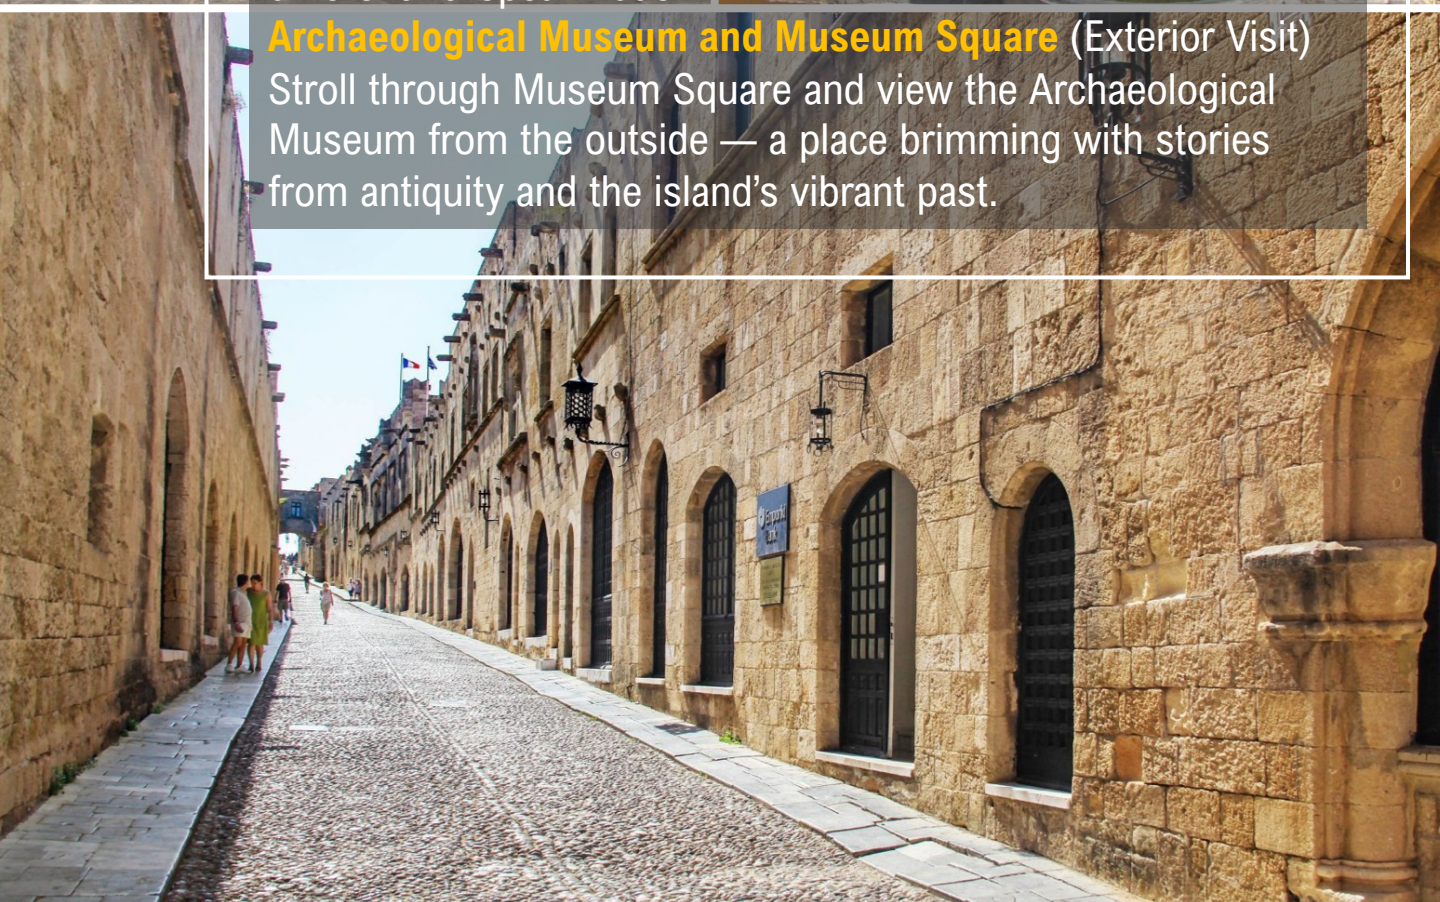

Street of the Knights

Walk along one of the most famous medieval streets in Europe, lined with the historic inns of the Knights, each representing a different European nation.

Archaeological Museum and Museum Square (Exterior Visit)

Stroll through Museum Square and view the Archaeological Museum from the outside — a place brimming with stories from antiquity and the island's vibrant past.

Ipokratous (Hippocrates) Square

Feel the pulse of Rhodes in this bustling, picturesque square — a perfect spot to experience local life surrounded by history, cafés, and charming boutiques.

Free Time to Explore

After the guided tour, enjoy (45 minutes) free time to shop, wander the narrow cobblestone streets, or simply relax and soak up the magical atmosphere of the Old Town before returning to your hotel.
